 13       Real Party in Interest (RPII) appears specially and not generally and NOTICES THE 14       COURT that RPII was forced at gun point to physically appear at the initial arraignment and at 15       subsequent hearings. RPII noticed court "Judge" at the arraignment that he would not submit to a 16       public defender. Administrative Law Judge (aka Magistrate) Johnson struck all documents filed

1 by RPII on the grounds that RPII had a public defender. Subsequently, Magistrate Johnson
2 admitted in open court at the Faretta Hearing that he was in error. Therefore, all documents filed
3 by RPII were properly filed and should be reinstated. Further, RPII demands that Court Clerk
4 change the PACER records to indicate and demonstrate that RPII has, had and never intended to 5 have a public defender representative and that the due process rights of RPII were egregiously 6 violated therein.

7 RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 5 day of October, 2009.
